Antioch High Students Among 500 of County Abbotts Will Entertain

Antioch Township High School students will be among the 500 science students and teachers from Lake County high schools Friday who will become the largest non-technical group to be conducted through Abbott Laboratories.

With one exception, tours of the sprawling North Chicago pharmaceutical plant have been restricted to employees, members of the medical and allied professions or students training for these professions. That exception was last November 25 when Abbott staged a Family Day for approximately 2500 members of employee families.

For the science students, however, Abbott plans an escorted tour, a special lunch, movies and a meeting with company officials.

To show the students and answer their questions, Abbott will call on the 110 Abbott employees who are especially trained to escort groups of visitors in addition to their other responsibilities.

Before they set out on their three-hour tour of the Abbott research laboratories and manufacturing facilities Friday morning, the students will meet with officials of the company.

Dr. Robert D. Coghill, Director of Research, will greet the students and introduce the company's President and general manager, Dr. Ernest H. Volwiler. Dr. Marlin T. Leffler, Associate Director of Research, will present a brief history of Abbott Laboratories. Robert L. Jones, research group leader in biochemistry in the development, will describe scientific career opportunities which are being created as

School Boards Weigh Advantages of Unit District Wed. Evening

Committee of Sixteen Will Study Conversion of H. S. District

Outcome of a meeting of members of school boards of all districts lying within Antioch High School district held last night was passage by a narrow margin of a resolution calling for continued study of the Unit district plan by a committee. The committee will be made up of one member from each elementary school district and a like number of citizens, one from each school district.

The meeting was the second called by the Antioch High School board to discuss conversion of the eight school districts into one under the Unit District laws.

Principal speaker at the meeting was H. D. Jacobs, principal and administrator at the Dundee Unit school district. Mr. Jacobs covered the development of the Unit district in his district for the past seven years. The Dundee Unit district was one of the first established after passage of legislation which allowed this type of organization.

Jacobs enumerated the advantages of the Unit district set-up as opposed to dual boards, and explained that under the unit plan one board of education is responsible for the entire educational program from kindergarten through high school. The Unit district makes for efficiency and a more uniform program, he said, and also results in better utilization of teachers. He cited the fact that the combined systems had employed 78 teachers in 1949, and that the system now employs only 133, with enrollment approximately doubled. Transportation costs with the new district

Mother of Six Hurt In Car-Train Crash At Trevor Yesterday

Mrs. Raymond Newhouse Drives Car into Soo Line Diesel Engine

Mrs. Helen Newhouse, 41 residing southwest of Trevor was seriously injured at 11:20 C.S.T. yesterday when her automobile crashed into a southbound Soo Line train at County Truck C in Trevor.

Both of Mrs. Newhouse's feet were injured, the right one being crushed, and she suffered cuts on the right side of her face according to reports.

She was rushed by the Antioch Rescue squad to Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan where her condition was said to be fair.

Alone in the car at the time, Mrs. Newhouse, mother of six children, had left two of her younger children with Mrs. Carl Johnson near Trevor while she came to Antioch to shop. The four older children were in class at the time at Holy Name school in Wilmet.

Deputy Arthur Blake of the Kenosha sheriff's office said that Louis Mallaman, a brakeman on the 72-car freight train, said he was riding on the first of a double-unit diesel locomotive and saw Mrs. Newhouse approaching the crossing at an estimated 45-mile an hour speed. Realizing that she couldn't stop in time he yelled to the engineer to stop.

Mrs. Newhouse's car struck the trucks of the second unit. She was thrown clear, and the motor knocked loose from the frame while the rest of the car was knocked to bits and scattered for 50 feet along the track.

Mrs. Newhouse's cries for her children, which in her shock she believed were still with her, kept the train crew and the deputy sheriff on a long search before they

Mayor Receives First Buddy Poppy of Sale

It was springtime in the village hall when Mrs. Arthur Portman, V. F. W. Auxiliary Poppy chairman presented Mayor McMillen the first Veterans of Foreign Wars buddy poppy, officially opening the Buddy Poppy campaign.

In accepting the buddy poppy the mayor said:

"It is truly a great pleasure to be the first person in Antioch to receive this significant red flower. Over the years the buddy poppy has become the symbol of all those men who fought so valiantly during our nation's hour of need."

"When buddy Poppies go on sale on Friday and Saturday, I hope that every citizen will pay homage to our needy and disabled veterans by buying a buddy poppy. Only in this way will the V. F. W. be able to carry on the great job it is doing."

Cmdr. Richard Seyfarth of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Sequoit Post of Antioch explained that half of all money collected in the sale of buddy poppies stays here in Antioch for veterans relief. The other half is divided between the V. F. W. National Rehabilitation Service, V. F. W. National Home for Widows and Orphans of Veterans, and the disabled veterans who make the poppies.

She came with her parents to Antioch in a covered wagon in 1874 when she was but six years old, living here until 1903, when she moved to Waukegan. Her marriage to Charles C. Harrison took place Dec. 31, 1888 at Genoa Junction, Wis. They had observed their sixty-third wedding anniversary before his death on March 20, 1951.

Mrs. Harrison at her death was the head of a five generation group. She is survived by two sons, Ralph H. Harrison, Waukegan, and Harry Harrison, Kenosha, and a daughter, Mrs. Vivian Schuman, Waukegan; 14 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Judy Horton Elected Treasurer of Assoc'n Of Student Councils

Twenty-three members of the Antioch Township High School Student Council saw their candidate, Judy Horton, elected treasurer of the Student Council association of the Northwest High School conference at the annual election at Grant High school last Thursday.

Lynn Bolton, an Antioch candidate, was defeated for first vice president. Both students are members of the Antioch council for the coming year. Judy is a senior class representative and Lynn was Boys State representative.

Preceding the convention, the executive committee of the schools of the conference met at Grant on May 8 and planned the convention. Robert G. Cain, president of the Antioch council, served as a member of the board. Mrs. Jeanette Tulumello is the council sponsor.

First Half of May Brings Freezing and High Temperatures

Freezing weather with exceptionally warm weather within a few days is the experience of Antioch.

Cooperative Weather Observer Roy Kufalk recorded a temperature of 32 degrees on Tuesday, May 8, and on the 11th and 12th recorded highs of 84 degrees.

Rain has fallen on six days this month for a total of 1.19 inch. They have been of the shower variety.

Good weather Saturday brought many people into Antioch to shop and the equally good weather Sunday saw many motorists on the highways.

Antioch Wins 2 From Wauconda; Loses to Grant for .500 Ave.

Deppe Credited With Two Victories in One Day; Frosh-Sophs Lose

After losing a hard fought battle to Grant High Monday, 5 to 3, Larry Leon's baseball warriors swung their clubs to the scores of 11 to 8 and 10 to 4 over the Wauconda Bull Dogs here Wednesday, bringing their season average to .500 with 4 games won and 4 lost.

The Wauconda games saw the remarkable record of an Antioch pitcher Earl Deppe getting credit for two victories in one afternoon. It came about in this way.

A game with Wauconda on April 20 was halted by darkness at a time. On Monday of this week, play was resumed, but rain ended play after a half inning.

Again play was resumed Wednesday on the 6-inning tie of 8-8, and the two teams went scoreless for the seventh inning. Deppe went to the mound in the eighth inning and held the visitors scoreless while his teammates at the top of the frame pushed across three runs. Through his one-inning of play he got credit for the victory.

In the game that followed the Sequoits continued their barrage of hits, knocking Jean Jaskot from the mound and treating his successor Lincoln no better.

Jaskot's home run in the first inning went for 425 feet and was the longest hit on the Antioch diamond this year. He leads the conference in batting. The summaries: Meyers and Walsh got triples and

Grass Lake School Election Set For Tuesday, June 12

Election of Grass Lake School district No. 36 will go to the polls on Tuesday, June 12, to choose seven members of their new school board. The special election was set for this date by Superintendent of Schools W. C. Petty after a census of the district showed that the total of residents was 1168. One thousand and is the required number to qualify the district for a seven man board.

The three-man board will pass out of existence with election of the new board.

A referendum, the result of which was in question since the vote was very close, held at the time of the regular school board elections, April 14, ended with a vote of 132 in favor of a $95,000 expansion program and 131 against. Petty advised the board that the measure had failed because two spoiled ballots were to be counted, showing that a majority of the votes cast were not for the measure. Legal counsel for the board advised that the two ballots were of no importance and that the measure had won.

Plans to go ahead with the issuance of bonds have been dropped by the present board in view of the coming election. Deadline for filing of petitions at the County Superintendent's office is Tuesday, May 22.

Poppies to Bloom on Coats, Dresses Next Weekend in Antioch

Poppies will bloom on coat lapels and women's dresses all over the state Friday and Saturday, May 25 and 26, American Legion Poppy Days in Illinois.

For more than 25 years now, the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary have appealed to the public on behalf of the disabled and needy veterans and their families through the sale of poppies.

The little red cloth flower that you wear on Poppy Days has been made by some veteran in a hospital bed. Perhaps he is one of those who has been in a veteran hospital for many years, never recovered from the wounds he received fighting for our country. Or, maybe he had to have help from his comrades because he is one of those who can not see to push the small green stem through the red petal. He may be using only one arm to do his work.

But the veterans in the hospitals don't mind the work. They are paid for the poppies they make by the American Legion and the Auxiliary. This is the only chance many of them have to earn while bedridden, to buy something for their wives and children.

All money raised in the distribution of the Legion and Auxiliary poppies goes to help these men.

Loyalty Dinner Saturday Will Be Kick-off For L. Villa Building Drive

The families of members and friends of the Lake Villa Community Methodist church will hold a Loyalty dinner at the gymnasium of the Lake Villa Grade school on Saturday, May 19, from 6:30 to 8 p. m.

Mrs. William Effinger and Mrs. Joe Nader, Jr., are serving as co-chairmen of arrangements and Mrs. Ben Cribb and Mrs. Joseph Mack will have charge of hostesses.

The banquet will mark the beginning of a fund-raising canvass to raise money for the financing of a new church building.

Three Fires Today Keep Firemen Busy

Antioch firemen were busy today with three calls before noon. The first call came in at 7:55 a. m. and called firemen to the Marie Edlmann home on Lake Marie where a clogged chimney caused smoke damage.

A barn fire at Benedictine Fathes Abbey, Benet lake, was responsible for a second call at 8:20. The second floor of a barn used to raise chickens was aflame and was extinguished quickly by the department. A loss to the building of about $500 is estimated, and 200 chickens were lost. A total of 1600 chickens are housed in the building.

An automobile fire at the O'Donnell Resort, near Grass Lake bridge, gutted a 1955 Ford property of Robert Blum, Chicago. Blum was in the O'Donnell tavern when the fire was discovered. This call was received at 11:30.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson of Trevor entertained Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. James Merold and son, James of Wadsworth, and Theodore Dooper and his sister, Mrs. Alberta Agricola of Kenosha.

At the Turn of the Century

Like many other newspapers, the Globe-Free Press of Grand Junction, Iowa, periodically reprints nostalgic little news items from past times. One of these, taken from an issue of 50 years ago, tells of a local store which was offering "seven pounds of good coffee for $1.00, prunes, 5 cents per pound, three one-pound cans of salmon for 25 cents, 20 pounds of best sugar, $1.00."

The contrast between the prices of then and now would be equally startling in the case of most other wares—clothes, household items, whatever. Without arguing the merits and demerits of the good old days, it's obvious that wages and taxes and other costs borne by business have risen enormously, and commodity prices have inevitably followed suit.

However, there is one thing that hasn't risen—that, instead, has gone down, way down. It is the profit earned by the typical merchant on each dollar of his sales. Half a century ago the idea of mass distribution at a low unit profit was virtually unknown. It was pioneered by the chains, and other kinds of retailers successfully adopted it. Today the profit remaining to food chains after the bills are paid is commonly in the neighborhood of a single cent on each sales dollar. In the case of retailers in other fields it is only three or four cents. It is so little, in other words, that if there were no profit at all the difference in the prices we pay would hardly be noticeable.

No one can compute how much low-cost mass distribution has saved and is saving the American consumer. But one thing is sure—the sum is staggeringly large.

Our Job Today

Admiral Alan G. Kirk was our Ambassador to the Soviet Union from 1949 to 1951. He thus saw what state control of industry means. Now he has something noteworthy to say about state control as applied to one particularly important industry—oil.

Russia is potentially rich in oil. Yet, Admiral Kirk points out, today she produces only 8.6 per cent of the world's oil. There is very little gasoline left for private use after the state fills its wants—and what there is costs five times as much as in the United States, and is of poor quality.

Then Admiral Kirk contrasts this situation with ours. We produce close to half of the world's oil. All the gasoline anyone wants is instantly available. It is of top quality—and the price (except for taxes over which the industry has no control) is little more than it was 30 years ago.

Why should this contrast be so great? Here is the Admiral's answer: "It seems that five-year plans are no substitute for the incentive of competition that sparks our own oil industry. Each of America's thousands of oil companies tries to outdo its rivals by constantly improving products and services. . . . How sharp the picture of how much we all owe to the American freedom of competitive action! How clear the lesson that our job today is to keep this freedom strong and unfettered!"

Just Tell the Truth

Italian-born Dr. Massimo Salvadori, now a teacher of history at Smith College, is a man who literally became famous overnight.

This unusual event happened when President Eisenhower praised in the highest terms a lecture Dr. Salvadori had delivered before the Foreign Service Institute. The lecture offered concrete suggestions for combating criticisms of the country which are frequently heard abroad. It contained, in the President's words, "some of the best ideas I have seen." Immediately thereafter Dr. Salvadori was flooded with requests for more lectures, articles, and television appearances.

Basically, Dr. Salvadori's thought is that we should meet the criticism by telling the truth. For example, it is commonly said—and in this country as well as others—that U. S. corporations earn indefensibly large profits at the expense of the public at large. Dr. Salvadori urged dissemination of the fact that "many large corporations . . . do not make more than one of two cents profit on each dollar's worth of goods sold."

This fact may come as news—almost unbelievable news—to many good Americans. But there are examples of it at hand everywhere. An outstanding one is retailing. A net profit of around one cent on each dollar of sales is the common experience of food chains. The profit is only moderately higher in the case of other kinds of retailers. All the rest of the consumer's dollar goes right out again—for supplies, for wages, for rents, for taxes, and for other expenses.

More power to Dr. Salvadori's ideas!

Not Far Enough

Dudley F. Pegrum, a professor of economics at UCLA, has something interesting to say about the Cabinet committee report on transportation regulation, which is primarily based on the idea that transportation laws and policies should be relaxed in order to give the carriers greater competitive freedom in pricing their services.

Professor Pegrum regards the report as sound—"as far as it goes." But he does not think it goes far enough. In his view, it ignores "the question of public aid to highway, air and water transportation—an aspect of public policy which is quite as much in need of objective and critical appraisal as the unequal impact of regulation."

The fact is that of all the commercial carriers, the railroads alone pay their own way in every particular. They must install and maintain every inch of the tracks they use—along with everything else involved in railroad operation, and pay taxes on it. Their competitors, by contrast, all get subsidies of one kind or another, direct or indirect, in the form of roads, airfields, navigational aids, and so on.

This matter was always important. But it has become a great deal more important in the light of the enormously expensive federal road program which is now being considered. Every taxpayer has a stake in it.

the various utility facilities has been established and adopted.

7. The commission expects to award its first construction contracts during July on a package basis to include grading, paving, and structures. Contract sections will vary from three to eight miles in length and from $2,000,000 to $10,000,000 in amount. First construction activities will probably be in rural areas.

8. Total expenditures from January 23 to March 31, totaled $410,707.53, divided as follows: preliminary expense, $11,028.47; right of way, $4,930; engineering, $283,723.60; and legal and administrative, $111,025.46. The commission has budgeted a total of $112,979,700 for expenditure during the current year as follows: preliminary expense, $1,300,000; administrative and legal, $682,700; engineering, $10,597,000; right of way, $30,000,000; construction, $50,000,000; and financial expense, $2,400,000.

Illinois Toll Highway Generally on Schedule Quarterly Report Says

The first quarterly report of the Illinois Toll Highway Commission, just released, indicates that the project to provide 193 miles of modern toll highways by December, 1958, is generally on schedule.

Charles L. Dearing, executive director, summarized the progress made since the sale of $415,000,000 of revenue bonds on January 23, as follows:

1. An administrative organization and staff was established within a few weeks time as well as principal offices at 20 North Wacker Drive, Chicago.
2. Deduction of the commission's cash balance, previously established at $26,000,000, to $1,000,000 permitting the reinvestment of an additional $25,000,000. The commission's reinvestment program has reduced the net interest cost on its bonds from $42,634.99 per day to $14,232.38 as of March 31.
3. Decision to build a prototype bridge of prestressed concrete as a possible model for 200 such bridges. The "assembly line" bridge is expected to reduce bridge construction time by 75 per cent and save $5,000,000 in costs.
4. Stepping up of land acquisition procedures to reduce total land acquisition time by several months and insure the availability of a full construction season to meet schedules.

5. Field engineering work is generally well along with a large percentage of the center line of the roadway established and staked out.
6. Policy and regulations to control relocation and realignment of

HEALTH TALK

Adopting a Child

More than 16,000 children are given a "new lease on life," through adoption each year. These children are taken into new homes to fill a definite need. Most often, either the adopting couple is unable to produce a child, or they want to forget the unhappy emptiness left by the death of a child.

At the same time, the Educational Committee of the Illinois State Medical Society observes in Health Talk, there are two other very important results. Security and happiness are conferred on the child, and a major contribution is made to society in a well-balanced citizen, mentally and physically. These three purposes are served only if adoption is properly planned and carried out.

Care should be exercised in the selection of a child for adoption, for, once he becomes yours, your responsibility is great, not for just a few years, but for life. The child, too, has special claims, aside from legal ones. He has the right to expect affection, love and understanding, which enter into proper emotional development. He also has the right to food, clothing and shelter, for his physical needs must be filled to insure his growing into a healthy adult. And then he has the right to good schooling and guidance, so that he can take his place in a community, not as a dependent, but as a productive, well-adjusted, self-sustaining individual.

For these reasons, the wise couple should consult a licensed agency concerned with the placement of children in homes. The family physician should also be consulted. While it is important to obtain as much information on the child's background as possible, it must be remembered that this is not always available, as evidenced by the many "doorstep" babies that are daily given shelter in agency homes.

Once the child is brought into your home, remember that he is yours for life. As he develops certain bad traits may become evident. That is true of any child, however. Don't feel that you have been cheated, and blame heredity. Instead, set about correcting them.

Remember that the child is not static, like the adult. He is changing, and his growth processes can be influenced immeasurably by your training and guidance.

Be frank with the adopted child. Let him know that you chose him in particular from among many other little boys and girls. You wanted him. This will keep him close to you, for if some unkind outsider tells him later, his feeling toward you may alter. Children are sensitive. They want to be long to someone and their feeling of possession is strong toward "my mommy" and "my daddy."

Don't expect thanks from the adopted child. You wouldn't get them from a child of your own. A child does not know how to weigh values and he takes his parents and home for granted. And that is the way it should be, for it is this complete dependence that makes childhood and early adolescence a happy period in the parent's life.

If you plan to adopt a child, talk it over with your family physician. Let him direct you to licensed agencies. State your reasons why you want to adopt a child. Be sure your reasons are unselfish and that your character is strong enough to forget that the baby is not of your own flesh and blood.

Children give great happiness and a home is often cold without them. Once you have adopted a child, give him the best material and emotional satisfaction from the store of love in your heart. This will help you and your child to a new happiness in life.

Great Lakes Observes Open House This Week

GREAT LAKES, ILL. (FHTNC)—Rear Admiral Emmet P. Forrestel, Commandant of the Ninth Naval District and Area I Commander for Armed Forces Day 1956, joins with President Eisenhower and Secretary of Defense Wilson in extending an invitation to all citizens to attend an "open house" at Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

May 19 is the official Armed Forces Day.

The residents of Antioch will view an aircraft flyover that week-end. Parades and speeches will share the limelight with the flyovers, but each branch of the military team feels the citizens will benefit more if they can see for themselves the "Power for Peace" theme of Armed Forces Day by attending an "open house" at a military activity whether it be a regular service installation or a reserve or National Guard armory.

World's most popular POWER STEERING?

Buick ROADMASTER 6-Passenger 4-Door Riviera

this way!

EVERY YEAR, more and more of the new cars sold are equipped with Power Steering. Many a man has bought it "for the wife"—then wondered how he ever got along without it.

And if you have in mind a new car with this increasingly popular feature, you ought to consider this fact:

Since the beginning of last year, Buick has sold far more new cars equipped with Power Steering than any other car—over 20,000 more in 1955 alone.

That's the record—and the reasons for it are just as impressive.

Buick brings you In-Line Safety Power Steering. In addition to the one-finger ease of turning common to all such systems in varying degree, it has several distinct advantages.

It gives you surer, steadier, safer control at highway speeds—because it retains that good natural "feel" of the road. (That's something you really should compare.)

On the other hand, it gives you more power assist when you need it most—at crawl speeds and at full stop. For parking and other tight maneuvering, Buick's Power Steering makes wheel turning nearly twice as easy as other types of systems. (And that's by engineering computation.)

Add another plus: this Buick feature works through the new Buick front end—where a unique new geometry and steering linkage bring a sweet new response and a wonderfully easy handling and a surer "sense of direction" even to new Buicks not equipped with the power system.

So there you are—and here we are, waiting to prove it all to you.

Waiting, also, to let you try the new thrills to be had in Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo—where getaway response and gas mileage both step up even before you switch the pitch.

And waiting to show you how the highest power yet, the sweetest ride yet and the boldest styling yet—all help to make this bright new beauty the Best Buick Yet.

Today is fine with us. How about you?

*Buick's In-Line Safety Power Steering is standard on Roadmaster and Super, optional at moderate extra cost on other Series.

†New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

have gone down also with the new District plan, and education of seventh and eighth graders has been broadened by addition of home economics and shop classes not possible under the Dual system.

N. E. Hutson, legal adviser to the State Superintendent of schools, was present at the meeting to speak on the legal aspects of the proposed conversion. After explaining the mechanics of the change Hutson remarked briefly on the advantages of the Unit district: "Don't expect to save money," he said, and added that in some cases costs have remained about the same, but that these are in the minority.

Educational advantages to be derived more than balance the increased costs, according to Hutson, who also noted that state aid to schools is greater in the case of the Unit district, and that the legislators seem to favor this type of organization. About 70 per cent of the area of Illinois is under the Unit type of school organization.

After Mr. Hutson's talk it was noted that the bonding power of a Unit district is limited to 5 per cent of the assessed valuation of the entire district, while each unit of a Dual set-up is allowed 5 per cent. According to figures compiled for the meeting, a unit district, if set up here, would be bonded almost to the limit the day it went in business, and since some building is necessary at once, it was thought that conversion to a unit district would make it impossible to provide sufficient buildings to house the rapidly increasing school population of the district.

No solution to this difficulty was presented, but Mr. Hutson noted that it was possible that the laws would be changed to allow increased bonding power for the Unit districts.

Members chosen by the individual boards are to report to the high school within one month for organization of the study committee.

Bourbonnais School Built for $8.10 per Square Foot Average

Bourbonnais Elementary School District No. 53 in Kankakee county has been cited by the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois as a fine example of how community cooperation and careful planning on the part of school officials and boards of education can provide necessary school buildings without undue burden on the taxpayers.

Like other districts of the State, Bourbonnais was faced with enrollments which almost doubled between 1950 and 1955. Their rented quarters became insufficient to meet their building needs.

Their bonding power would not permit the building of a gymnasium. For a nominal fee, the board of education provided for a check on the assessment rolls in order to see whether or not all taxable property was being assessed. As a result, bonding power of approximately $36,000 was added, enabling completion of the gymnasium.

The board of education, the county superintendent of schools, and

Girl Scout News

Active adult Girl Scouts in the Lake Villa and Venetian Village neighborhoods met last week for their final meeting of the season.

Final plans for Brownie Day Camp, and Intermediate Camp at Druce's Lake Camp, were discussed. The necessary counselors have been obtained with the exception of a Senior Life Guard for Druce lake camp. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Lucia Johnson at Antioch 786. Girls planning to attend either of these camps, both to be held in June, should obtain an application blank from their leaders as soon as possible. Attendance is limited to 100 girls-per camp.

Neighborhood chairmen for the following season will be Mrs. Lorraine Lewis, Mrs. Marion Kostelny, and Mrs. Lynn Hay, and Cookie chairman will be Mrs. Joyce McCleod.

Plans for the Brownie and Intermediate all helped in the planning of the building, which is attractive and functional and was built at an average cost of $8.10 per square foot. This is in contrast to prices of $11 to $16.00 for comparable schools in surrounding areas. Classrooms averaged $7,750 and the gymnasium area, $70,000. The average classroom cost in the United States for 1953-54 was $35,000.

Voter approval of the proposed bond issue to build the Bourbonnais Elementary School, at a better than 10 to 1 ratio, reflected the well placed confidence of the residents of Kankakee County School District No. 53 in their school officials and board of education, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois declared today.

mediate to march in the Decoration day parade were discussed also. Intermediate troop No. 29 of Lake Villa held a mother and daughter get-together last week, at which time the girls presented copper plaques they had made to their mothers as gifts.

Their guest speaker for the event was Mrs. Elizabeth Storch, president of the Lakeside Girl Scout Council.

Leaders Mrs. Lynn Hay and Mrs. Mildred Shadick helped the girls serve refreshments to the mothers and guests.

Am. Legion Auxiliary Has Gold Star Party

Gold Star members of Antioch Unit were guests of honor at a meeting of the unit Friday evening. Three Gold Star mothers, Mrs. Nellie Hanke, Mrs. L. C. Scott and Mrs. Myra Randall and three Gold Star sisters, Mrs. Olive Tweed, Mrs. Eva Gaylord and Mrs. Evelyn Freund were present.

Two members unable to attend were Mrs. Helen Carlson, a gold star mother and Mrs. Lorberg Nelson, gold star widow.

A short business meeting was held after which refreshments were served at tables beautifully decorated in blue and gold. A corsage and a gift was presented to each gold star guest. Music and games completed the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Addie Horton, gold star chairman and her committee, Mrs. Louise Erickson, Mrs. Ellen Swenson and Miss Nancy Swenson were in charge of the evening.

Nominating Committee Elected
A nominating committee of five members was chosen for the purpose of nominating a new slate of officers for the coming year. The president of the unit appointed Ellen Swenson chairman of the committee, others chosen were Dorothy Horan, Eva Gaylord, Deborah Van Patten and Sadie Keeney.

Poppy Days Announced

Final plans were made for the Legion and Auxiliary Poppy Days, Friday evening, May 25 and all day Saturday, May 26. On these days American Legion men and women will approach the public in a fund-raising appeal for the benefit of needy and disabled veterans and their families.

Traffic Death Mount; Drive Carefully, Obey Rules; Live Longer

New York—Americans are speeding toward the highest traffic accident, injury and fatality experience in the nation's history, Thomas N. Boate, manager of the Accident Prevention Department of the Association of Casualty and Surety companies, declares. Greatly stepped-up traffic law enforcement measures, he warned, are imperative for the protection of motorists and pedestrians alike.

"Last year," Mr. Boate said, "the nation suffered 38,300 traffic deaths, 2,158,000 injuries and 9,000,000 accidents. During the first quarter of this year, we were 10 per cent ahead of figures for the same period last year. If this rate continues, we will end 1956 with 42,130 deaths, 2,373,500 injuries and 10,000,000 accidents on our highways."

"Usually, at this time of the year, we are making plans to attempt to control the rash of accidents that invariably occur over the Memorial Day and Independence Day holidays. But if the present rate of increase continues, such efforts may be purely academic. The rate for any one day will be so high that these two holidays, which fall on Wednesday this year, may well be lost in the shuffle."

"We are being told that in terms of miles driven and exposure to accidents, we are killing fewer people than ever before. At the most, all that this proves is that people can drive a few more miles before they have an accident. It doesn't alter the fact that 26,000 accidents occur each day, and that each year almost one out of every 4,000 Americans dies on the highway."

"Last year 2,000,000 pleasure trips ended in highway disaster, and to me it is no consolation to know that although I'm marked for death, I have the dubious privilege of driving a few more miles before I am brought to an unnecessary and terrible end of life's journey."

"We know that 80 per cent of all accidents result from driver errors. Last year, for instance, the leading causes of highway death were exceeding the speed limit, driving on the wrong side of the road, failing to yield the right-of-way, driving off the roadway and just plain reckless driving.

"Obviously, the ideal way to stop traffic accidents is for every driver to recognize his obligation to drive cautiously and alertly and to obey our traffic laws. Experience proves, however, that this is not likely to happen yet. So, to protect motorists from themselves, as well as from chronic violators, government needs to heed the request of the National Conference of State Safety Co-ordinators, administrator of the summer-long 'Slow Down and Live' program, the nation's major accident reduction program. This group has called on all state governors to step up state enforcement activities and to urge mayors to do the same on local levels."

"State and city governments should make every effort to enforce the laws that are designed to prevent motorists from driving dangerously fast, from hogging the highway, from driving while intoxicated and from driving recklessly and arrogantly. Every driver who, through reckless disregard of safety regulations, demonstrates himself to be incompetent, should be removed from the highway. Unfortunately, no other method offers the slightest hope that a great many of us will survive to see that happy time when the motorists, themselves will understand that lawful driving is just common-sense application of the natural law of survival."

"A few states have recognized the gravity of our highway epidemic and have taken effective enforcement measures. In one or two states, during especially bad periods—usually holidays, the governor has supplemented his available enforcement personnel with members of the national guard.

FIRE DEPARTMENT
QUICKLY, CORRECTLY

Knowing what to do ahead of time is very important should you discover fire or smoke in your home. For it's likely you'll be really excited. You can quickly get the fire department by turning in an alarm at the firebox or by telephone. Find out for yourself and all members of the family, the location of the nearest fire alarm box, learn from your fire department how to operate the alarm box. Be prepared to stay, or have someone stay at the box, till the fire engines arrive and firemen can be directed to the fire. In using the telephone give your name, street number, and community. Tell them where the fire is.

© AMERICAN MUTUAL LIAB. INS. CO.

"The results of these, and other enforcement measures, have proved that increased enforcement does decrease violations and accidents. Our present highway tragedy gives vivid testimony that we need increased enforcement every day, not merely on holidays. We need it on a day-in and day-out basis until we can be sure that safety on our highways is a natural instinct of those who use the highways."

OUT ON A LIMB

By Stumpy McCulloch

After Amos's barn burned down, he rushed over to see Cy Edwards, the insurance feller, about collectin' on the policy. But Cy tried to explain that Amos couldn't collect cash. "Read the policy," he said. "All the company promised to do is build you another barn exactly like the one that burned."

"All right," Amos shouted. "If that's the way you varmints do business, cancel the policy on my wife before it's too late!"

When you're cuttin' trees, it sure pays to follow the rules of safety. Course, everybody knows a feller ought to be careful so's he won't endanger himself or others to fall in trees or rollin' logs. I've always thought, too, that it's best not to cut trees during a strong wind—cause wind can make a tree fall where you don't want it to. And I always clear the brush away from a tree, so I'll have plenty of room for my saw and ax, and for a quick get-away if I need it.

Another thing a woodsman has to be specially careful about is a tree whose center has rotted away, leaving only a green sap shell supporting the tree. This can be mighty dangerous. You might have to do some chopping on each side of the back—and in that case, it's best to chop just back of the undercut if sawin' appears to be dangerous. 'Cause, if the tree leans forward kind of heavy, it could pull over prematurely, taking the roots, saw and even the lumberman along with it. So—cut the extreme back part last—don't leave the saw resting on the stump when the tree starts to fall—and be careful!

By the way, there's some good news for us tree farmers in the U.S. Forest Service's new survey, which is called the Timber Resource Review. The report says the demand for timber in the U.S.—and this is important for Canadians too—is growin' all the time. In fact, in fifty years it'll be at least two-thirds again as high as it is today. That means tree farmin' is going to become more and more profitable every year!

The report says, too, that the growth of new timber now just about equals the rate at which timber is being cut—and that's a real victory for good forest management!

Have you heard about the young feller who begged, "Whisper those three little words that will make me walk on air?"

His gal friend told him sweetly, "Go hang yourself!"

So long folks, see you next week!

Well, sir, if you're ever lookin' for exercise, I hope you'll come down and visit me while I'm limbin' the trees I've harvested. Limbing is a real art. I find an axe works best on the small limbs, but I use a saw for the bigger ones. 'Course, it takes practice to do the job right. If the tops of saplings have been pinned down by the falling tree, it's a job for a man who knows what he's doin'. If he's not careful when he cuts the sapling, it may swing back at him with a wallop.

OVER 175 HORSEPOWER IN RESERVE!

... when you're cruising at everyday speeds!

THE ROCKET'S EXTRA MARGIN OF POWER MEANS AN EXTRA MARGIN OF SAFETY!

HIGH HORSEPOWER... high torque... high compression. It takes all three to describe Oldsmobile's Rocket! But there's still another important side to the picture.

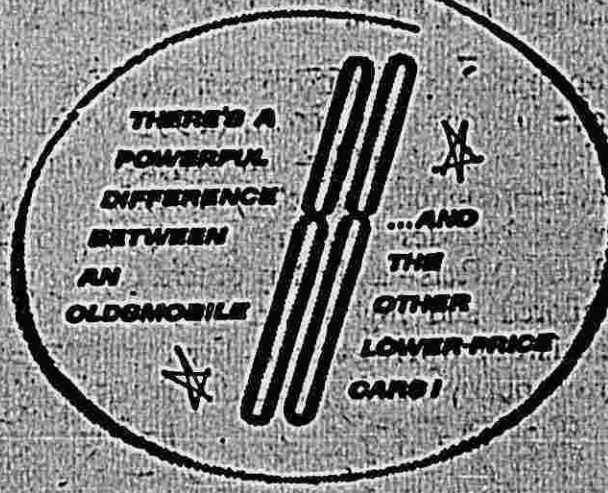

It's reserve power—in abundance! In fact, at normal cruising speeds the Rocket still has more than 175 horsepower left. Beyond what it takes to propel the car! It's this reserve that whips you through a passing situation so quickly, so effortlessly.

That means economy, too! The Rocket just eases along, when lesser engines are straining. You can see the result in Oldsmobile's double victory in the Mobilgas Economy Run!

The modern "big bore—short stroke" design cuts friction and power loss. The Rocket's design made high compression practical... and today's Rocket hits a high 9.25 to 1 compression!

Come take the wheel of a Rocket-Oldsmobile. You will feel a distinct difference in performance, in riding and handling qualities... just as you see a glamorous difference in Oldsmobile's beauty. We'll be looking for you soon!

SAVE At Least 20%

Combine all your essential home insurance in a single, simplified policy. Stop buying your home insurance piecemeal; save that extra 20%—get superior coverage with the new "HOMEOWNERS POLICY." ## Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

With the seasonal increase in nighttime driving, it might be well at this time to review some of the perils facing a motorist when he is called upon to drive after darkness sets in.

Needless to say, the distance you can see ahead is greatly reduced at night. Therefore, you should reduce your speed to such an extent that you will be able to stop in the visible clear distance ahead. It is doubtful that your range of visibility is enough to identify the distance and nature of objects within the few seconds of time in which your vehicle can travel several hundred feet if you are driving at a speed greater than 45 miles per hour. Do not overdrive your lights.

Illinois law states that motorists must dim their headlights when approaching another vehicle proceeding in an opposite direction at night. According to the law, lights should be dimmed when within not less than 350 feet of the approaching vehicle. (Section 111, Uniform Act Regulating Traffic.) Avoid looking directly into approaching lights. A good practice on such occasions is to watch the right side of the road.

Never drive when you become sleepy—whether it be night or day. Either change drivers or pull off the road and take a nap.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

HAVE ADEQUATE LIGHTING

A home without proper lighting is difficult and at times a dangerous place to live. Check yours now. Do you have convenient, good lighting at stair landings and for the front and back porch steps? Are there night lights where needed should children or grownups get up at night? Would you say that you have plenty of light in the home work areas like the kitchen, sewing corner, near the work bench, in the garage. Get enough light in places where there is insufficient light or no light at all, before an accident occurs.
